Ryan is a member of the networking organisation, BNI, and the luxury prize came as a result of a referral from a fellow member, Trevor Reid, Sales Director, Clarity Telecom.

As the overall winner, Ryan will be spending three nights in Monte Carlo in a luxury hotel, sampling helicopter trips and a drive in a Ferrari around the famous racecourse, plus £1,000 spending money.

BNI has been established in Northern Ireland for six years and the Belfast City Chapter is having an open day for visitors tomorrow at 7.00am in the Malone Lodge Hotel in Belfast.
