To whom it may concern

Dear Sirs,

I recently purchased an Apple iphone but was having considerable difficulty in setting it up to send and receive emails. I contacted Trevor Bradfield at Unity IT who sent a technician to my office. He was able to recognise that I needed a service pack installed on the office server which he did and my phone was configured with the correct settings. I am now able to send and receive emails and also sync my office diary to the phone. I would thoroughly recommend Unity IT for their knowledgeable, fast, friendly and efficient service.

Yours faithfully
